Kazuyuki Takezaki

(1976)

Kazuyuki Takezaki was born in Kochi, Japan, in 1976 and studied at the Faculty of Education at Kochi University, from where he graduated in 1999.

Takezaki's works are characterised by an economy of means which traces his roots back to not just the tradition of painting but also to that of drawing.

To date Takezaki has presented eight solo shows and has participated in numerous group exhibitions. Public Collections which have works of his include The National Museum of Art in Osaka and the Vangi Sculpture Garden Museum in Shizuoka Japan. Kazuyuki Takezaki currently lives and works in Kagawa, Japan.

“Work by Kazuyuki Takezaki is not to be read intellectually but to be experienced sensuously. It aspires to lightness rather than heaviness, sensations rather than theories, oscillations rather than quiescence. This is not unrelated to the fact that Takezaki, as an artist, aims at giving form to "memories of landscapes”.
